so someone who isnt me hasnt always been one to do drugs. stoped hanging out w/ ppl in high school because they started smoking & i wouldnt try. always been a straightedge gamer lol. until recentlya tleast, when a dispensary opened a few blocks from my upscale apartment. now id always been an average player, 2.1 k/d, never played buzzed or stoned. i was really bored, and figured i'd check out the dispensary since all the players ive come across w/ 420 in their names play better, and say that being high gives them an edge. so long story short i picked up some pot cookies, a and a deathstar (huge dose)., i ate a cookie but didnt feel it, so i devoured the deathstar while i was playinbg DOM. after my initial "oh shit" moment, i blacked out for a omement. when i came back i was on fucking autopilot. i had omnitpotence; i could do a 180 just knowing someone was behind me w/ no UAV up, i was hyper-aware of all spawn locations, iw as running to them and just decimating every single player with my suppressed Vesper extended mag foregrip ELO, fury kill after fury kill (4 fast kills), wallrunning and tossing a concusion banger before 1080 quickscoping the 2 perps capping B w/ one shot, landing and hipfiring the chokepoint w/ the stock VMP i picked up. my room was breathing with my as i inhaled to still my sniper scope, i was prefiring around walls with pinpoint prediction, launching warmachine nades into the air at "random" and getting ruthless medals oin loop. if any of my friends fromn [redacted] high school remember me, this is trevor,. you know who. im sorry i ditched u guys when u wanted to blaze, im so sorry
